

NEWS

2019-01-21

We welcome all new (and not so new) students to a new semester, spring 2019, starting on 21 January! A welcome lunch for new students will be held on Wednesday 30 January at 12.00 at the Centre for Gender Research, where students will be able to have lunch and listen to some of our researchers talk about their work.

New student? Read more about how to get started here:
<http://www.gender.uu.se/utbildning/-antagen/>

2019-01-25

On January 25 we will be celebrating Maja Bodin, Klara Goedecke and Anders Johansson as they take part in the Doctoral Degree Conferment Ceremony at Uppsala University. All three successfully defended their theses in 2018.

<http://www.gender.uu.se/nyheter/?tarContentId=764742>

2018-11-10

On the 10th of December Gabriele Griffin and Anneli Häyrén from the Centre for Gender Research, together with Sophia Renemar from HeraHub, received an Attractive Innovation Project Award for their project "Women as entrepreneurs: The meaning of co-working hubs for normcritique and sustainable businesses". The award is presented by UU Innovation to projects considered to have great development potential.

<http://www.gender.uu.se/nyheter/?tarContentId=761026>

2018-12-18

Margaretha Fahlgren och Anna Williams (red.) har kommit ut med en ny bok, Mamma hursomhelst, där de samlar berättelser om moderskap från en mängd olika håll. Här blandas berättelser från forskare, kulturskribenter och skönlitterära författare och en rad forskare med koppling till Centrum för genusvetenskap finns representerade.

<http://www.gender.uu.se/nyheter/?tarContentId=762054>

UPCOMING EVENTS

The Thursday seminars and Queer seminars run throughout the semester as usual. We are also happy to announce the return of the Feminist city tours and the Gender lunches this semester! More information to follow in the spring semester seminar programme, out shortly.

The seminars and events listed here are open for all.

2019-01-31

Diana Højlund Madsen, Localising the Global – Resolution 1325 as a Tool for Promoting Women’s Rights and Gender Equality in Rwanda

Time: 13.15–15.00

Place: 13:11, Centre for Gender Research

<http://www.gender.uu.se/kalendarium/evenemang/?eventid=41050>

2019-02-06

Katarina Pirak Sikku arrangerar seminariet Att ge mig mitt perspektiv – Ett seminarium om olika aspekter av kolonisering och dekolonisering.

Föreläsare: Moa Matthis, Per Axelsson och Ingar

Nikolaisen Kuoljok

Tid: 13.00-16.00

Plats: Hörsalen på Åjtte fjäll- och samemuseum, Jokkmokk

<http://www.gender.uu.se/kalendarium/evenemang/?eventid=41258>

2019-02-14

Memory Mphaphuli, In Search of Black Women’s Sexuality in Contemporary South Africa

Time: 13.15–15.00

Place: KWB, Centre for Gender Research

<http://www.gender.uu.se/kalendarium/evenemang/?eventid=41290>

NEW EMPLOYEES

This semester several new employees and visiting researchers are joining us:

Annie Woube, researcher

Erika Mårtensson, PhD student

Kate Scantlebury, guest researcher

Moses Ataho, intern

Welcome!

CENTRE FOR GENDER RESEARCH