You probably have not missed the hashtag #metoo that has been everywhere on social medias. A hashtag used to show how common sexual harassments and assaults really are. Anneli Häyrén, researcher at the Centre, has been interviewed several times and has spoken on both TV, radio and other medias. Read and listen to her thoughts about the hashtag via the link below.

NEW EMPLOYEES

Warm welcome to our new personnel administrator, Isabel Barrios Bjurlén!

In November we will welcome several new employees. Kate Scantlebury, a regular visiting scholar who will be at the Centre for a short visit. Guest researcher Julian Honkasalo who is a postdoc scholar in gender studies at the University of Helsinki. Julian will be collecting material for the project Unfit for Citizenship: Eugenics and the Pathologization of Gender Nonconformity. We will also welcome our new Information Officer Kajsa Gilander in November. Warm welcome to all of you!
